Agenda Item No: REP 23-14

Re: Appointments to the Human Services Commission

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

Staff requests Council consideration regarding appointments to the Boone County Community Services Advisory Commission pending council bill B57-14 which would amend Chapter 2 of the City Code as it relates to the composition of the commission.

DISCUSSION:

Effective January 1, 2014, Boone County is no longer contracting with the city to administer its social services funding. Therefore, council bill B57-14 has been introduced to amend the ordinance changing the name of the commission to the Human Services Commission and establishing the commission as a City-only advisory body. The recommended changes also include eliminating the three positions appointed by the County Commission and replacing these with three positions appointed by the City Council.

Currently two of the three county-appointed positions are occupied by commissioners Shirley Patterson and Eva Trumbower. Both of these commissioners are City of Columbia residents and both wish to continue to serve on the commission. For reasons of continuity and because these commissioners are already trained and experienced in the fulfillment of commission duties, both staff and the current commission members recommend that they be appointed to the commission pending the approval of council bill B57-14. It is also recommended that these commissioners' term of service, along with the third vacant position, remain the same in order to preserve the staggered schedule of commission appointments.

FISCAL IMPACT:

There is no fiscal impact associated with this report.
