DOUGLASS BULLDOG BASEBALL

About the Douglass Baseball Program

Since 1996, the Douglass Athletic Association has been a community organization that helps the youth of Columbia by providing T-ball and baseball recreation during the summer months.

The League

The Douglass Athletic Association promotes a fun, non-competitive environment for boys and girls ages 5-10. Douglass Baseball is designed to teach kids basic baseball skills. Having fun and learning to play baseball are the program's main goals.

Games are played at Douglass Park, which is conveniently located at Providence and Rogers Streets in Columbia. Enrolled players each receive a league hat and T-shirt.

Registration deadline is
May 1, 2014 (late fee $5)

Coaching

Opportunities are available to assist the league by becoming a team coach. Each team will have a head coach and an assistant coach. A thorough knowledge of baseball is not required – only a willingness to help guide players in the game.

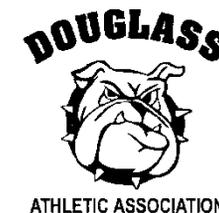

Responsibilities include contacting team players, practicing on a regular basis, and coaching games. With the coach-pitch teams, one or more of the coaches will serve as the pitcher for his/her team. Coaching will involve a weekly time commitment of approximately 5-8 hours, but it can be divided among the team's coaches.

Officiating

If you have a good working knowledge of the game and would like to assist the league in officiating games, please inform us.

Team Parenting

As a "team parent", you will assist the coaches by helping in the dugout. Having the batting order ready for at-bats, and teaching the children proper bench behavior will be examples of your responsibilities.

Sponsoring

By becoming a league sponsor, you will help enable kids in our community to have a safe and fun place to play this summer. League sponsorships begin at just $50.
