MEDIA RELEASE – 10/9/17

ARREST MADE AFTER WEAPONS INCIDENTS IN THE 1000 BLOCK OF CLAUDELL LANE

Columbia Police officers arrested Keaveon Zaniyah Harris, 18, of Columbia in reference to two weapons-related incidents that were reported yesterday afternoon.

Officers were called to the 1000 block of Claudell Lane at 2:30 p.m. on 10/8/17 in reference to a weapons incident. The investigation revealed Keaveon Harris brandished firearms at an adult female, 19, an adult male, 29, and four juveniles, . Harris was known to the victims.

During this investigation, officers were advised Harris had brandished a firearm at another juvenile victim on 10/7/17. The victims of the incidents are related by family. Harris and two other suspects took an undisclosed amount of money and other items from the victim and pushed the victim outside of a residence in the 1000 block of Claudell Lane.

Officers made contact with Harris at a residence in the 1000 block of Claudell Lane at approximately 2:50 p.m. A search of the residence located two firearms concealed in clothing in a room of the residence. Both of the firearms were identified by the initial victim as the weapons used during the initial reported incident.

Harris was arrested on 10/8/17 in the 1000 block of Claudell Lane at 3:17 p.m. for Felony Robbery in the Second Degree and two (2) counts of Felony Unlawful Use of a Weapon with bonds to be set by the Court.

2017-010882 & 2017-010889

CONTACT:
Bryana Larimer
Public Information Officer
(573) 817-5049
Bryana.Larimer@CoMo.gov