RE: Statement of Intent / Application for Permanent Rezoning and Planned Unit
Development Plan / The Avenue at Columbia / Park7 Group (the "Applicant")

Dear Mssrs. Teddy and Zenner,

The following is intended to satisfy the requirements of Section 29-10(e)(2) of the City's Zoning Ordinances:

a. The uses proposed for the site are all uses permitted in Section 29-8 District R-3 of the City's zoning ordinances.

b. The types of dwelling units shall be: Multiple-Family, including, without limiting the foregoing, 1, 2, 3, and/or 4 bedroom units.

c. The maximum number of dwelling units shall be 387 units and maximum density shall be 9 units per acre.

d. The maximum building height proposed for the Property is 37 feet measured from the lowest adjacent grade of each building.

e. The total number of vehicle parking spaces proposed is 1068 and the proposed parking ratio per dwelling unit is 2.76 (1068/387), which is based on the maximum number of units permitted under a PUD-9 zoning designation. The PUD Plan contains 358 units and 987 parking spaces, which is a parking ratio of 2.76. Should the number of units change which results in a different number of bedrooms per unit or should the type of units change under the current number of units such that there are more or less bedrooms, the need for parking would likely change. In such case, the parking ratio might vary slightly based on the actual number of bedrooms (e.g., if more units but lower ratio of bedrooms per unit, a parking ratio of 2.5 might be more appropriate or if less units but higher ratio of bedrooms per unit, a parking ratio of 3.0 might be more appropriate). The upper limit on parking spaces shall be product of 1.25 multiplied by the actual number of bedrooms.

f. The minimum percentage of the site to be maintained in open space shall be a total of 60%. Of such total, 45% shall be in landscaping and 15% shall be in existing vegetation.

g. Proposed amenities may be swimming pools, basketball courts, tennis courts, and club houses.

h. The PUD Plan is generally described as a plan containing Multiple-Family 1, 2, 3, and 4 bedroom units and any combination of same. There shall be no minimum lot size. Units may be contained on a single zero lot line lot, a single family lot, or on a large lot containing several units. There shall be a minimum yard setback of twenty-five feet. There shall be no other minimum setbacks from perimeter or interior streets or between buildings.

i. Should MoDOT approve either or both of the following prior to the earlier of two years from the effective date of this Statement of Intent or the date upon which the Applicant shall have submitted final design plans for any phase of development under the PUD Plan, the Applicant shall cause such approved matter to be completed before it shall obtain occupancy permits for the improvements constructed under the PUD Plan:

1. extend the east bound left turn lane at the intersection of Audubon Drive and Stadium Boulevard by approximately 300 feet;
2. modify the traffic signal at Audubon Drive and Stadium Boulevard to include a dedicated east bound left turn signal from Stadium Boulevard onto Audubon Drive.

j. The developer shall be required to record covenants and restrictions applicable to the real estate within the development prior to final plat approval, which shall describe the following obligations of the Applicant, and its successors and assigns, and shall name the Timberhill Road Neighborhood Association, the Shepard Hills Improvement Association, and the Shepard Boulevard Neighborhood Association (the "Associations") as the beneficiaries of said covenants and restrictions: the potential obligations of the Applicant with regard to the intersection of Audubon Drive and Stadium Boulevard described in item i. of this Statement of Intent; the installation and maintenance of landscaping improvements and a berm along a portion of the north boundary of the Property as shown on the PUD Plan, including the replacement of dead landscaping; the installation of a fence along a portion of the north boundary of the Property adjacent the property to which the Shepard Hills Improvement Association and Timberhill Road Neighborhood Association apply, as shown on the PUD Plan; facilitate connection of fiber optic service to the property to which the Shepard Hills Improvement Association and Timberhill Road Neighborhood Association apply (i.e., install to subdivision boundary through the Property or cause a provider of optic service to deliver to subdivision by another route); and, the restrictions and obligations as to Timberhill Road as shown and described on the PUD Plan.

Sincerely,

Van Matre, Harrison, Hollis, Taylor, and Bacon, P.C.

Re: Park 7 Group rezoning and PUD plan approval (Case # 13-204)

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

A request by the Crockett Engineering, on behalf of Park 7 Group (contract purchaser), to rezone approximately 43 acres from A-1 (Agriculture) to PUD 9 (Planned Unit Development maximum 9 units/acre) and receive approval of a final PUD development plan to be known as "The Avenue at Columbia". The subject property is located approximately 1500 feet northeast of the Stadium Boulevard/Cinnamon Hill Lane/Maguire Boulevard intersection and is addressed as 1202 Cinnamon Hill Lane. (Case # 13-204)

DISCUSSION:

The applicant is requesting to rezone approximately 43 acres from A-1 to PUD-9 for the purpose of developing a 358 unit, 899 bed residential development for collegiate housing. The current zoning permits single-family dwellings on minimum 7,000 square foot lots. The submitted Statement of Intent (attached) limits the development on the site to all R-3 district uses (single-family, duplex, and multi-family) and with a total of 387 units.

The submitted PUD development plan (attached) provides assurances relating to the intended development pattern of the site and attempts to address many of the possible impacts that this project will create on the surrounding area. The development plan shows 1) enhanced buffering of the residential property to the north, 2) the extension of Timberhill Road to the south as a gated private roadway (built to public street standards) for emergency access and future connectivity, 3) extension of Cinnamon Hill Lane through the property with expanded right-of-way to accommodate access to the C-1 and City water tank sites to the north and the large tract to the east, and 4) a permanent green space conservation easement to protect the climax forest.

The proposed PUD zoning is consistent with the "neighborhood district" designation recommendation by Columbia Imagined and would provide a land use transition between the higher intensity commercial to the south and the lower density single-family to the north. The traffic study prepared as part of the submission indicates that signal timing adjustments at nearby intersections along Stadium Boulevard will be required to accommodate future traffic.

At its November 21, 2013 meeting, the Planning and Zoning Commission considered the rezoning and development plan and voted (5-2) to recommend approval of the application subject to items 2 through 12 proposed by the Shepard Hill Improvement Association (attached), revisions to the SOL relating to building height, parking, vegetative cover, and incorporation of the conditions offered by the applicant on pages 5 & 6 of their slide presentation (attached), as well as revisions to the PUD plan and the notation relating the opening of Timberhill Road as shown on the plan.

In arriving at its recommendation the Commission commented on the opening of the Timberhill Road connection, the proposed public infrastructure improvements, building heights, site grading, loss of vegetative cover, and security issues for development residents. The Commission indicated that it felt the proposed development was in the right location and engaged the adjacent neighborhood associations effectively; however, was potentially too dense and could be improved by potential layout changes. They also acknowledged that the site could have been proposed for further commercialization and the development as proposed would eliminate that possibility. Commissioners voting no expressed concerns that the development was too dense and too abrupt a transition from the low-density of the areas to the north and east.

The applicant and their agents made presentations and answered Commission questions. Approximately six individuals spoke in opposition to the plan citing concerns about their loss in quality of life, the removal of trees, the connection of Timberhill Road to the extension of Cinnamon Hill Lane, traffic impacts on Stadium Boulevard, and the possibility that the development was not needed due to the market being over-saturated with similar developments. Representatives from the Shepard Hills Improvement Association/Timberhill Neighborhood Association submitted a petition with 12 conditions of approval that they desired be included in the ordinance rezoning the property.

A copy of the staff report, locator maps, PUD plan, SOI, correspondence, and meeting excerpts are attached.

FISCAL IMPACT:

This request will generate fiscal impacts related to the extension of public safety, transportation, and utility services. The applicant will construct all public improvements to City standards and internal roadways and utilities will be privately owned and maintained. Timing of incurred fiscal impacts for public facilities will not be within the next 2 fiscal years and the impacts created for utilities (water, sewer, trash) and public safety services will be collected from user fees.

VISION IMPACT:

<http://www.gocolumbiamo.com/Council/Meetings/visionimpact.php>

This proposal supports Strategy 5.3.1 which states development will "use the city's development planning process to promote socio-economically diverse, mixed-use neighborhoods that are supported by citywide bicycle, pedestrian, and transit systems to reduce the need for automobile commuting."

SUGGESTED COUNCIL ACTIONS:

Approval of the rezoning from A-1 to PUD 9 and the PUD development plan entitled "Avenue at Columbia" as recommended by the Planning and Zoning Commission subject to:

1. Satisfactory compliance with conditions 2 through 12 proposed by the Shepard Hill Improvement Association (attached)
2. Revisions to the SOI relating to building height, parking, and vegetative cover.
3. Revisions to the PUD plan and the notation relating the opening of Timberhill Road.

Note: The applicant has revised the SOI and PUD plan to address the Commission's approval conditions with the exception of extending the landscaping berm along the northern property line of the subject site as stated in item # 3 of the Shepard Hills Improvement Association conditions.

We want to make a statement about the nature of the neighborhood. Because of our experience, we do not believe a student housing development is appropriate bordering our neighborhood.

If the development is approved, we propose that the following be included in the ordinance:

1. Current Timberhill Road is not included in this proposal. It will only be opened upon request of the Timberhill Road Neighborhood Association (TRNA). In this event, the city is responsible for cost and construction for improvements.
2. The developer and subsequent development is assigned responsibility for securing the perimeter of the property.
3. A 5- foot irrigated berm will extend to the Miller property
4. Landscape planting will be established and maintained on the berm.
5. Maintenance by developer and subsequent development of existing trees and foliage next to the property line.
6. The road to be built will be used for emergency vehicles only with a gate that others cannot use.
7. A proper (ex: government 5-wire) fence connecting to the gate
8. A TRNA accessible fire hydrant installed
9. Move buildings 24, 25 and 26 south of their current locations
10. Lighting directed downward and inward to the complex
11. Construction hours follow city requirements.
12. -Developer facilitates connection of fiber optic service to TRNA

SUMMARY

A request by the Crockett Engineering, on behalf of Park 7 Group (contract purchaser), to rezone approximately 45.1 acres from A-1 (Agriculture) to PUD 9 (Planned Unit Development maximum 9 units/acre) and receive approval of a final PUD development plan to be known as "The Avenue at Columbia". The subject parcel contains approximately 43 acres is located approximately 1500 feet northeast of the Stadium Boulevard/Cinnamon Hill Lane/Maguire Boulevard intersection and is addressed as 1202 Cinnamon Hill Lane. (Case # 13-204)

DISCUSSION

The applicant is requesting to rezone approximately 43 acres from A-1 (Agriculture District) to PUD-9 (a Planned Unit Development with a maximum density of 9 dwelling units per acre) for the purpose of developing a 358 unit, 899 bed residential development for collegiate housing. The site is improved with a single-family home, and is bounded on the north by undeveloped commercial property, a City water tower, and two single-family homes. To the south is C-P zoned land with a hotel and other commercial uses which are part of the Crosscreek Development. To the east is an undeveloped A-1 property and to the west is Highway 63.

The proposed PUD zoning is consistent with the "neighborhood district" designation recommendation by Columbia Imagined and would provide a land use transition between the higher intensity commercial to the south and the lower density single-family to the north. The current zoning of the site permits single-family dwellings at an approximate density of 6 units/acre. In addition to the single-family dwellings a series of other uses could occur on the site such as the cultivation of crops, the raising and care of livestock, and other commercial agriculture-related operations such as wholesale greenhouses and plant nurseries. The submitted Statement of Intent (attached) limits the development on this site to all R-3 district uses (single-family, duplex, and multi-family) and further limits the total number of units to 387.

The applicant has submitted a development plan (attached) to be approved with the rezoning. The PUD plan provides assurances relating to the intended development pattern and attempts to address many of the possible impacts that this project will create on the surrounding area. The development plan shows the following:

1. Enhanced buffering of the residential property to the north
2. The extension of Timberhill Road to the south as gated private roadway (built to public street standards) for emergency access and future connectivity
3. A new public street extension of Cinnamon Hill Lane through the property
4. An expanded right-of-way to accommodate access to the C-1 and City water tank sites to the north development tract
5. A permanent green space conservation easement to protect the climax forest located at the southeast corner of the development tract

A traffic study was conducted as part of the application submission. The conclusion of this study was that adjustments to the signal timing at the several of the nearby intersections will be necessary if the development is approved. Such adjustments were identified as necessary to accommodate anticipated increases in traffic volumes.

The development plan has been reviewed by applicable City departments and external agencies found compliant with the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance. The development plan serves as the preliminary plat for the site. Prior to issuance of building permits a final plat will be required to dedicate public rights-of-way and easements (utility and conversation).

RECOMMENDATION

Staff recommends:

- Approval of PUD-9 zoning and the corresponding statement of intent
- Approval of the proposed PUD development plan

SHIA meeting with developers 10/22/13

On 10/22/13 a group of concerned residents of Shepard Hills and Shepard Boulevard neighborhoods met with representatives of Park 7, the prospective developer of 45 acres adjoining our neighborhood, currently zoned agricultural.

From our neighborhood the following attended: Harold and Lonetta Johnson, Vicki Carstens and Gary Kass, Gregg and Dianne Suhler, Leroy Sharp, Doris Littrell, Stephanie Henson, Mike and Katie Kane.

The meeting was organized by John States. Paul Levine attended on behalf of Park 7 along with Bob Hollis and Tim Crockett, the former a local attorney and the latter owner of a private civil engineering firm that Mr. Levine has hired to assist him. Tim made a presentation and did most of the talking.

Park 7 is a New York based firm and the developer of a 24 story student housing building planned for downtown Columbia.

The proposal is to have the Lamb property rezoned to PUD development. Park 7 would like to build a multi-unit student housing facility there, bordering Cross Creek to its south and the properties of Doris Littrell and Anne Minor to its north.

The complex would have 225-350 units including studios and up to 4 bedroom units with club house, recreation center, swimming pool, and frequent shuttles to downtown and campus. Rental rates are expected to be +/- $700 for a 1 BR, +/- $500 per person in a 4 BR unit. They would be fully furnished including Internet etc. and clubhouse use.

Phase 1 of building would begin next fall and create 700 beds. The ultimate total is expected to be 800-900 beds.

The city is concerned about the limited access to major roadways that this project could result in. They therefore want the developers to provide a connection to Timberhill Road. Because our neighborhood is against this the compromise we have suggested is a road with access limited to emergency vehicles.

The city also projects that Cinnamon Hill will be extended north to join up with Broadway sometime in the future. We don't know if this proposal would be parallel to Highway 63 or curve around behind our properties through the Gordon tract.

Input from Doris, Harold, and Gregg led the developers to present to us a plan slightly modified from their original vision:

-The closest buildings to our neighborhood are proposed to be 85 feet away from the Littrell and Minor properties.

-High berms and evergreens are being considered to eliminate noise and block view. The developers suggested 5 feet. Doris argued this would not be adequate.

Lighting is intended to point downward and inward and be a maximum height of 20 feet.

10% more parking than bedrooms is being built in.

Electricity will be from Columbia Power & Light, with buried wires.

There will be a hydrant at the north end that could also be used for our neighborhood.

Conservation-wise their plan is to preserve woods on the south-east corner of the lot. We suggested a belt of existing trees be left along our boarder with the complex.

Harold suggested and we all supported a proposal to move the 2 units planned for closest to our neighborhood down to around where the Lambs house now stands (it is to be torn down).

Park7 projected it might continue to own and manage properties it builds for around 15 years but this is just an estimate. Levine said realty trusts often are interested in buying such complexes. He mentioned American Campus as a holder of many such properties.

Levine said the developers have been doing this kind of student housing project for around 15 years (though Park7 itself was formed only in 2010).

Shepard Hills P&Z

More than fifty years ago, in an article for the Columbia Daily Tribune, reporter John F. Schultz wrote, "The modern Columbia homebuilder who prefers spacious, rolling land combined with rustic scenery will find his dreams fulfilled in the Shepard Hills subdivision."

"Elevated high above Columbia, in the thickly wooded Shepard Hills, this scenic area promises to be one of Columbia's most exclusive areas."

"Each lot ranges from one to four acres in size," emphasized Clyde L. Shepard, owner of the land and former president of the Columbia Chamber of Commerce. "Most people want to own land, and they want more than just an eighty-foot lot."

"The outstanding feature is a 10-acre park, planned exclusively for the lot owners' recreation." "This park is zoned by the Shepard Hills Improvement Assn., Inc."

"Shepard Hills will be exclusively residential, and there will be no signs, billboards, advertising structures or any type of commercial activity allowed." Quote from Harold F. Reisch, early president of the Improvement Association.

Andrew C. Minor, associate professor of Music at the University of Missouri said, "Shepard Hills appeals to me because of its peaceful atmosphere. It gives one the feeling of relaxation. The view is magnificent."

During the next five decades, the homeowners in Shepard Hills have protected the essence of the neighborhood, maintaining the peaceful atmosphere and shielding it from the encroaching sprawl. Of the current homeowners, nearly half are original owners or second-generation family members. The magnificent mature trees and neatly maintained lawns exemplify the pride Shepard Hills homeowners have in their homes. They have spent a great deal of money and hard work keeping up and improving their properties.

When people who have never been here drive up, they always comment this way, "This is so beautiful. We never knew it was even here." Or, "This feels like we are in the country!" "It's like stepping back in time."

As a young man I actually helped build my parents' home, the same house we now live in.

Information for the Planning & Zoning November 21, 2013 meeting

We appreciate the willingness of the developers, Park 7 Group with John States of Little Dixie Construction to meet with our neighborhood associations (Timberhill Road Neighborhood Association and Shepard Boulevard Neighborhood, respectively) to review the proposed development, to listen to neighborhood concerns, and to incorporate many of our requests into their final plan. We recognize this dialogue is not pro forma, and we are appreciative of their efforts to work with us to alleviate some of our immediate concerns.

We do, however, wish to clarify that we are not in support of this development nor the request to rezone this land from A-1 to PUD-9. We feel it is an inappropriate use of the adjacent property particularly in juxtaposition to our neighborhood and oppose this rezoning request on several counts.

Our work with John States and Park 7 Group should therefore be interpreted as a Plan B – for it is not what we wish to see, but if it comes to pass, we have worked to incorporate elements into the final development and the continued operation of the complex to make it a more compatible neighbor.

SHIA/TRNA is a unique neighborhood and has been for the past 58 years. Of the fourteen houses in this neighborhood, four properties – 29% - remain with the original owners/family. Turnover is extremely low - the average ownership in the neighborhood is 27 years. The neighborhood has many excellent examples of mid-century modern architecture. This neighborhood is not one that has fallen into disrepair – the homes are well maintained; homes have been updated, yet none have been torn down or extensively remodeled as is so often the case in older neighborhoods. The character of the neighborhood is much the same as it was fifty years ago and as it was clearly intended by the developer, Mr. Clyde Shepard.

And that is one of our concerns – what is being proposed next to our neighborhood is completely out of context to the neighborhood and to the surrounding environment. This proposed development is the second largest student housing development in Columbia. Only Aspen Heights is larger. With the exception of development projects downtown, this is one of the only (or the only) developments that directly abuts an established neighborhood. To build such a complex adjacent to a long established community of acreage lots where the purpose of the community was to live in a wooded, peaceful setting is inappropriate.

And once the trees are taken down on the adjacent property – there is no going back – it's gone – the beauty, the tranquility, the view of the stars at night – or the songbirds - attributes we hold dear and would hate to see destroyed – for once those trees come down, they're gone – and how sad that they would be replaced by parking for 1000 cars for transient students. Having green space in a growing urban environment is rare – shouldn't more of that be preserved?

"The location has a definite appeal to the people of the University because of its rustic environment and proximity to the school. This will preserve the natural beauty that the Shepard Hills offer."

Article from the Columbia Daily Tribune (?)– circa 1958

We all recognize and support the growth of Columbia and the University. Indeed, the majority of the neighborhood residents have been, and/or continue to be, faculty and employees of the University, Stephens College, and Columbia College – so we support that growth – but we hope for smart growth and more appropriate land use.

It has been suggested that perhaps this large, student-housing complex is the best we could hope for next to our neighborhood. Perhaps, and working with a congenial developer is certainly a positive, but we believe that instead of something worse than what is being proposed there could be something better – whether the land retains its A-1 zoning status or even returns to its prior R-1 zoning. A single family dwelling neighborhood – such as Timberhill Road, or Bluff Creek Estates –this would be a much more acceptable use of the property and a use that was originally intended and promised by the original visionary and developer, Clyde Shepard, regarding that land.

Traffic Concerns

We also believe that this 899-bed complex will add considerably to the traffic congestion at Stadium and 63. While a turn lane request is being added to the plans for Audubon Drive – we are concerned about the additional burden of traffic on Stadium and 63. We disagree with MoDot's assessment of the impact on traffic – the area is already congested and a significant problem during afternoon rush hour. Adding the volume of traffic from Cinnamon Hill will only make it more of an issue.

Timberhill Road Emergency Access

The City staff has requested that Timberhill Hill Road be used for emergency fire/police access only. The neighborhood is supportive of that. We are strongly opposed, however, to Timberhill Road ever being opened up to Cinnamon Hill traffic – whether automobile, bicycle, or pedestrian. Aside from changing the dynamics of the neighborhood, Timberhill is completely inappropriate for high volume traffic – the slope, the sharp turns at the base of the hill and the very steep inclines at the junction of Timberhill and Rustic Roads make it unsuitable and dangerous for such volume of traffic, and would be a very expensive venture to make suitable for such traffic. We ask that Timberhill Road be opened up only via request by the Timberhill Road Neighborhood Association.

Property values

While it is hard to make any kind of determination of how this proposed development would impact our property values, we are quite concerned. We worry about how the traffic, noise, lights, and potential crime in such a high-density complex would impact our neighborhood and our property values. As it stands, we know that no one has suggested to us that our property values would actually increase as a result of this development. We have been warned by professionals that if Timberhill Road were to be opened up to such traffic, it would certainly have a negative impact on our property values.

Overdevelopment of specialized Student Housing and future demographics

We are concerned, as many in this community are, about the student housing overdevelopment in the outlying areas and in the upper price ranges, and the downturn of college-age demographics projected for 2020 – five years after the proposed opening of this development.

Building Concerns

We understand that this proposed complex will not have any basements or underground shelter area that could be used in the event of a tornado. We believe this is a questionable decision in central Missouri.

For all of these reasons, we ask that you consider this rezoning request.

Madge and Anne Minor, Timberhill Road/Shepard Hills Improvement Association

Shepard Hills Promises to Be One of Most Exclusive Areas

JOHN F. SCHULTZ

The modern Columbia home-builder who prefers spacious, rolling land combined with rustic scenery will find his dreams fulfilled in the Shepard Hills subdivision.

This new subdivision is located one mile east of Highway 63 on the Fulton Gravel Road.

Elevated high above Columbia in the thickly wooded Shepard Hills, this scenic area promises to be one of Columbia's most exclusive areas.

THE TREMENDOUS size of the lots in an advantage not offered in many other modern-day subdivisions. "Each lot ranges from one to four acres in size," emphasized Clyde L. Shepard, owner of the land and former president of Central Dairy and the Columbia Chamber of Commerce. "Most people want to own land," continued Shepard, "and they usually want more than just an 80 foot lot. That's why my lots are unusually large."

Individual styling will be the theme for all houses in the Shepard Hills.

"Besides owning land," Shepard said, "many people like to build their own homes, rather than have them pre-constructed." With this thought in mind, Shepard decreed that all construction will be left to the individual lot owner's discretion.

The outstanding feature of a 10-acre park, planned exclusively for the lot owners' recreation, will attract many Columbians who prefer the "outdoor" mode of life.

JEAN MADDEN, assistant alumni director of the University and KOMU sportscaster who plans to build in the Shepard Hills said he likes the idea of the park area and the large lots for they offered the right type of recreation for children. This park is zoned by the Shepard Hills Improvement Assn., Inc., in which each lot owner will automatically have one share and one vote on all issues.

Harold F. Reisch, professor at the Bible College and president of the Improvement Assn., said that a sincere effort has been made by Shepard to have the age range and the occupational interests of the lot owners somewhat similar. This will tend to create a better interest in the community.

The location has a definite appeal to the people of the people of the University because of its rustic environment and proximity to the school. Of the nine lot owners, eight of them are from the University and Stephens College.

AS YET, two houses have been built and six of the 15 lots remain to be sold. The lots, ranging in price from $1,750 to $2,100, cover an area of approximately 35 acres.

Reisch said that he considered the elevation of the Shepard Hills a big feature for it is one of the highest locations in the area and overlooks the rustic scenery of Hominy Creek.

"As for distance, we're no farther from downtown than most of the people in the west section of the city. The Shepard Hills will be exclusively residential and there will be no signs, billboards, advertising structures or any type of commercial activity allowed. This will preserve the natural beauty that the Shepard Hills offer."

ANDREW C. MINOR, associate professor of music at the University, said, "Shepard Hills appeals to me because of its peaceful atmosphere that gives one the feeling of relaxation. The view is magnificent."

The rights on all building restrictions are reserved by Shepard. The restrictions are that no dwelling may be built with less than 1,250 square feet of included floor space for a one story structure or less than 850 square feet for a one and one-half or two-story structure, exclusive of basements, porches, or attached garages.

Also, there will be no tanks for storage of oil, or other fluids, permitted above the surface of the ground unless the ground is landscaped in a manner to be approved by Shepard.

The roads were all planned by Shepard and have been deeded to the Columbia special road district.

The Shepard Hills has a community water well located in the 10 acre park. That is now in the process of being approved by the state board of health. All other plumbing facilities will be provided by the lot owner.

INFORMATION FOR P & Z NOV. 21, 2013 MEETING:

As President of Shepard Hills Improvement Association, (Timberhill Road NA), I, Harold Johnson, am speaking for a small community, (city subdivision), of 14 homes, including a peaceful 9-acre park.

Our subdivision was established by Clyde Shepard in 1950, a prominent landowner and developer, President of Central Dairy and also of the Columbia Chamber of Commerce, and who also developed Eagle Park.

This isolated community of comfortable homes and beautiful trees originally was outside the city limits with our own well, a small road system, with no curbs or gutters, and designed for local traffic.

Our small subdivision, with our own covenant, over time has experienced the development of a 4 lane highway bordering the community park, a city water tower south of the park, but our small residential area is not prepared for the construction of a 900-student complex immediately adjacent to the southern border of our homes and subdivision.

Assuming the Park 7 Group insists on building this complex adjacent to our country homes, we are hopeful that the dormitories (24, 25, 26) are constructed near the Club House, and not merely moved a short distance from the Shepard Hills property line (currently proposed to be 100 feet).

I would like to close my comments with a short footnote: Mr. Shepard, when creating this neighborhood, made a promise to property buyers that the adjoining property (to the south and east of this subdivision) would only be used for farm or residential purposes. This is the land, (the Lamb property) being sold to the Park 7 Group for PUD9 development.

We, as a neighborhood are hopeful that the hopes and dreams of Clyde Shepard and his promises, be respected so that the rustic environment bordering our homes may be preserved and not converted to three stories of brick, student parties, and commotion.

Harold Johnson, President, Shepard Hill Improvement Association

We want to make a statement about the nature of the neighborhood. Because of our experience, we do not believe a student housing development is appropriate bordering our neighborhood.

If the development is approved, we propose that the following be included in the ordinance:

1. Current Timberhill Road is not included in this proposal. It will only be opened upon request of the Timberhill Road Neighborhood Association (TRNA). In this event, the city is responsible for cost and construction for improvements.
2. The developer and subsequent development is assigned responsibility for securing the perimeter of the property.
3. A 5- foot irrigated berm will extend to the Miller property
4. Landscape planting will be established and maintained on the berm.
5. Maintenance by developer and subsequent development of existing trees and foliage next to the property line.
6. The road to be built will be used for emergency vehicles only with a gate that others cannot use.
7. A proper (ex: government 5-wire) fence connecting to the gate
8. A TRNA accessible fire hydrant installed
9. Move buildings 24, 25 and 26 south of their current locations
10. Lighting directed downward and inward to the complex
11. Construction hours follow city requirements.
12. -Developer facilitates connection of fiber optic service to TRNA

Pat or Sheela - Would you mind forwarding this attachment and this message to the members of the Planning and Zoning Commission? I understand that there are a few people that are under the mistaken impression that the restrictions on the attached plat are applicable to the Lamb property.

To be clear, these restrictions do not apply and there are no such restrictions applicable to the Lamb property. This plat is of the property to the north of the Lamb property and, as such, the restrictions on the plat have no effect on the Lamb property.

Please let me know if you have any questions or comments.

Thanks.
