Executive Summary

At the request of Council, this resolution was prepared by staff to transfer $1,500 from Council Reserves and $1,500 from the Council Travel Budget, to the Youth Advisory Commission for the purpose of sending two Youth Advisory Council members to the National League of Cities Conference.

Discussion

In addition to welcoming thousands of local leaders to NLC conferences each year, NLC also hosts a Youth Delegate Program. Members of the Youth Advisory Council (YAC) were given the opportunity to submit a one-page statement of interest on why they should be selected to attend and what they hope to bring back for the YAC. Upon completion of those submissions, two members of the YAC were selected to attend the NLC Youth Delegate Program.

This resolution would transfer the necessary funds to cover the: airfare, meal costs, conference registration and lodging for the students. A parent or chaperone will be required to attend at their own cost.

Almost 200 high school youth will join conference delegates at the general sessions and some workshops, and will gather for their own dedicated sessions and events designed by NLC's Institute for Youth, Education and Families with youth input.

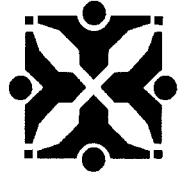

Fiscal Impact

Short-Term Impact: $1,500 will be moved from Council Reserves to the YAC Board/Commission budget. $1,500 will be moved from Council Travel Budget to YAC Board/Commission Budget.

Long-Term Impact: There are no long term impacts expected.
