Line cut disrupts most of the emergency phones along MKT Trail

(COLUMBIA, Mo.) Trail users should be cautioned that all but three of the emergency phones along the MKT Trail are currently out of service. CenturyLink is working to restore service.

Emergency phones in working order are located at the M.L. King Memorial trail access, the phone north of the M.L. King Memorial at Stadium Boulevard and the phone located at the Flat Branch Park Trailhead. Non-working phones are labeled as "out-of-service."
