Questions concerning holiday collection should be directed to the Contact Center at 573.874.CITY (2489).

Parks and Recreation’s Activity & Recreation Center (ARC) will close at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 21 and will remain closed on Thanksgiving Day. Missouri winters can be unpredictable from year to year, which makes it all the more necessary to begin preparing before the first ice or snow. If you don't live on a priority snow route, if you live at the top or bottom of a steep hill or if you have special medical needs, it's important to think through your winter-weather travel options. During winter weather events, City snow operations crews must concentrate on priority snow routes to ensure safe access to hospitals, fire stations, schools and major roadways.

If you absolutely must go out during winter weather for work, healthcare or school, what is your planned route? Is public transportation or carpooling an option? If you need to go up or down a steep hill, do you have access to a four-wheel drive vehicle? Have you considered snow tires or chains? Have you packed your car with emergency winter-weather supplies?

Don't forget your sidewalks. Be a good neighbor by making sure the walkways in front of your home are not dangerous for your family or other pedestrians. By City ordinance, property owners and renters are responsible for keeping their sidewalks clear of ice and snow. Do you have sturdy snow shovels and salt on hand? Supplies may dry up during a major winter event or series of events. Services for Independent Living (SIL) connect volunteers to those with disabilities or are 55 years or older in Boone County whose income is at or below 200 percent of the federal poverty line. To volunteer or request assistance, contact Madison Anderson at manderson@silcolumbia.org or 573.874.1646 ext 223.

These are just some of the things you should think about before winter begins. For more information about the City's snow fighting policies and procedures, visit CoMoSnow.com.
Holiday recycling tips

- Most wrapping paper is not recyclable. Please make an effort to only purchase wrapping paper that is advertised as being recyclable. When in doubt, you can use newspaper or brown Kraft paper.
- Tape and stickers do not need to be removed from recyclable wrapping paper or cardboard (...but it does help).
- Holiday cards and envelopes are recyclable.
- Ribbons, bows, ornaments and tinsel should be reused or donated – they are not recyclable.
- Broken holiday lights can be taken to Mid-MO Recycling, 6104 Brown Station Road.
- Plastic holiday trees are not recyclable, but live trees can be composted. Please take your live trees to a Yard Waste Drop-off Center or directly to the City’s Compost Operation. Any trees left on the street curb will be sent to the landfill.
- Bubble wrap, air cushions, Styrofoam packaging peanuts, and flat sheets of Styrofoam can be taken to The UPS Store (any location) to be reused or recycled.
- Donate or sell old clothing, electronics, furniture, kitchenware, etc.
- Avoid plastic bags when recycling. Use plastic tubs or cardboard boxes to transport recyclable material.
- Support the recycling industry by purchasing items that contain recycled material – often advertised as “post-consumer content.”
- Shop local! Explore local retail shops, thrift stores, Craigslist, Facebook or others.

Donations of new toys and money are being accepted through Dec. 10. Toys can be dropped off at the Armory Sports Center, 701 E. Ash; the Activity & Recreation Center (ARC), 1701 W. Ash; or the Parks and Recreation office, 1 S. Seventh St. For other drop-off locations, please check CoMo.gov.

Holiday cooking safety

The Columbia Fire Department offers the following cooking safety tips to keep you safe during this holiday season:

- Stay in the kitchen while you are frying, grilling, boiling or broiling food.
- If you are simmering, baking, or roasting food, check it regularly, remain in the kitchen while food is cooking and use a timer to remind you that you are cooking.
- Keep anything that can catch fire, oven mitts, wooden utensils, food packaging, towels or curtains, away from your stovetop.

If you have a cooking fire:

- Get out! When you leave, close the door behind you to help contain the fire. Call 9-1-1 after you leave.
- If trying to fight the fire, be sure others are out and you have a clear way out.
- Keep a lid nearby when you’re cooking to smother small grease fires. Smother the fire by sliding the lid over the pan and turn off the stovetop. Leave the pan covered until it is completely cooled.
- For an oven fire, turn off the heat and keep the door closed.

Volunteer of the Month: Nia Imani

Nia Imani is honored as the November Volunteer of the Month for her work with Live Well by Faith, a program of the Columbia/Boone County Department of Health and Human Services.

Nia leads weekly preventive health programs in her church, Friendship Missionary Baptist Church, including cooking classes and Weight Watchers meetings. She has served in this role for the last two years. The goal of the Live Well by Faith program is to promote healthy lifestyles in the African American community where health disparities are the greatest.

Health Educator Verna Laboy nominated Nia because of her effectiveness. Nia has collaborated with several church denominations to build a thriving program. Members from six different churches attend her programs.

“Nia is an awesome leader and her enthusiasm is contagious,” Laboy said. “She is passionate about the work and has lost over 30 pounds herself.”

Live Well by Faith has had success because of the dedication of volunteers like Nia Imani. Thank you, Nia, for the difference you are making in the lives of others in Columbia.

To learn more about volunteering with the City of Columbia, visit the City’s website at CoMo.gov, email volunteer@CoMo.gov, or call 573.874.7499.

Fostering Equitable and Inclusive Neighborhoods event

Many Columbia families live in insecure housing or neighborhoods that negatively shape their health and other life outcomes. These issues are often poorly understood and difficult to address with meaningful impact.

The City of Columbia is hosting an evening with Dr. Tiffany Manual, a national thought leader on affordable housing, community development, equity and inclusion. This event will provide both academic and practical insights on these complex social problems. The event is free and open to the public. The event will be held at 6 p.m. on Nov. 29 in the Council Chambers at City Hall, 701 E. Broadway.

Update Utility Customer Service information

Whether leaving town for an extended holiday visit, or moving out of Columbia permanently, please update contact information (address and phone number) with Utility Customer Service (UCS).

Many accounts go delinquent over the holiday season because UCS does not have correct mailing information. Customers leaving town for a month or more may also provide a temporary alternate mailing address, then go back to receiving bills at the service address when returning to Columbia. Visit CoMo.gov, click utilities, and submit the form to update contact information, or call 573.874.7380. UCS would like to wish all of our customers a safe and healthy holiday season!
