1. PURPOSE

Participating Jurisdictions (PJs) receiving U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) entitlement grant funds must develop a Citizen Participation Plan (CPP) in accordance with Title 24 CFR 91.105 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended. The CPP describes efforts undertaken to encourage citizen participation in the development of the City of Columbia's federal reports: 5-year Consolidated Plan, the Annual Action Plan (AAP), and the Consolidated Annual Performance and Evaluation Report (CAPER).

The CPP is designed to encourage the participation of City residents in the development of the federal reports listed above, particularly low to moderate income residents. The CPP also encourages local and regional institutions and other organizations (including businesses, developers, and community and faith-based organizations) to participate in developing and implementing the 5-year Consolidated Plan and related reports. The City shall take appropriate actions to encourage the participation of persons of minority backgrounds, persons with limited-English proficiency, and persons with disabilities. The City shall also encourage participation from residents of public and assisted housing facilities in the development and implementation of the Consolidated Plan.

The City of Columbia is committed to compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended. Reasonable modifications and equal access to communications will be provided upon request. The City of Columbia does not discriminate on the basis of disability in the admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its programs and activities.

The CPP applies to five areas of planning for the use of affordable housing, community and economic development made possible through HUD funding:

- A. The 5-year Consolidated Plan;
- B. The Annual Action Plan;
- C. The Consolidated Annual Performance and Evaluation Report (CAPER);
- D. Substantial amendments to a 5-Year Consolidated Plan and/or Annual Action Plan; and
- E. Amendments to the Citizen Participation Plan.

The City of Columbia's CDBG and HOME program/fiscal year begins January 1 and ends December 31st. In order to receive entitlement grant funding, the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) requires jurisdictions to submit a Consolidated Plan every five years. This plan is a comprehensive strategic plan for community planning and development activities. The AAP serves as the City's application for these HUD grant programs. Federal law also requires citizens have opportunities to review and comment on the local jurisdiction's plans to allocate these funds.

The purpose of programs covered by this CPP is to improve the Columbia community by providing: decent housing, a suitable living environment, and economic opportunities for low and moderate income households.

This document outlines how members of the Columbia community may participate in the five planning areas previously listed (A-E). General requirements for all or most activities are described in detail in Section 5 of the Citizen Participation Plan (CPP).

2. HUD PROGRAMS

The City of Columbia receives two entitlement grants from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), to help address the City's affordable housing, community and economic development needs.

- A. Community Development Block Grant Program (CDBG): Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (PL 93-383) created the CDBG program. It was re-authorized in 1990 as part of the Cranston-Gonzalez National Affordable Housing Act. The primary objective of the CDBG program is to develop viable urban communities by providing decent housing and a suitable living environment and by expanding economic development opportunities for persons of low and moderate income. The City develops locally defined programs and funding priorities for CDBG, but activities must address one or more of the national objectives of the CDBG program. The three national objectives are: (1) to benefit low to moderate income persons; (2) to aid in the prevention or elimination of slums or blight; and/or (3) to meet other urgent community development needs. The City of Columbia's CDBG program emphasizes activities that directly benefit low and moderate-income persons.
- B. HOME Investment Partnerships Program (HOME): HOME was introduced in the Cranston-Gonzalez National Affordable Housing Act of 1990 and provides funding for housing rehabilitation, new housing construction, acquisition of affordable housing, and tenant-based rental assistance. A portion of the funds (15 percent) must be set aside for community housing development organizations (CHDOs) certified by the City of Columbia.

3. LEAD AGENCY

The City of Columbia - Housing Programs Office (HPO) is designated by the Columbia City Council as the lead agency for the administration of the CDBG and HOME grant programs. Through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Housing Programs staff administers the CDBG and HOME programs. As the lead agency for HUD, the Housing Programs staff are responsible for developing the 5-Year Consolidated Plan, Annual Action Plans, and the Consolidated Annual Performance and Evaluation Report (CAPER).

The Housing Programs Office coordinates with the Columbia Housing Authority, other City Departments and local service providers to develop these documents.

4. PLANNING ACTIVITIES SUBJECT TO CITIZEN PARTICIPATION PLAN

- A. THE FIVE-YEAR CONSOLIDATED PLAN. The City of Columbia's 5-year Consolidated Plan is developed through a collaborative process whereby the community identifies needs, goals and funding priorities for Columbia's affordable housing, and community and economic development activities.

Citizen participation is an essential component in developing the 5-Year Consolidated Plan; amending the plan and reporting on program performance. Focus groups, public hearings, community meetings, citizen surveys and opportunities to provide written comment are all a part of the strategy to obtain citizen input. The Housing Programs Office will make special efforts to solicit the views of low to moderate income citizens, and to encourage the participation of all citizens including minorities, the non-English speaking population, and persons with disabilities.
