

Residential Water Bill Estimator

This guide provides with the information on how to navigate residential water bill estimator. The main layout is divided into left (FY 2025) and right (FY 2026) sections which give a comparison of bills with current seasonal and new year-round proposed billing system as below :

Instructions

1. When you land on the main page of dashboard, click one of the icons to select relevant bill calculation based on your meter and usage type. The details for icons are mentioned below the them.

Residential Meter

High Usage Residential

Irrigation Meter

Note : Select option according to your meter and usage type:

- 1) Residential Meter : For customers having normal water usage who do not use irrigation (usually under 20 CCF).
- 2) High Usage Residential : For residential houses, who use water for irrigation on top of normal usage but all usage is on 'residential meter' (usually more than 20 CCF).
- 3) Irrigation Meter : For customers who have separate irrigation meter. This will give you the bill for irrigation meter usage only.

- For bill calculation on the left side (Fiscal year 2025) dated June, July, August, or September, please click the "Summer months". Otherwise, select 'non-summer months'

Select Bill Month Type:

Non-summer months

Summer months

Note : For Fiscal year 2026 (right side of comparison in the dashboard), the tier system is year-round so there are no such buttons provided.
